NOTE OF EXPLANATION.

The following is the same for the Ancestors and Ascendants of the Supplement as for those of the Register of 1905, page 269, except that the Eligibility Committee has had to exclude, since the Register was printed, a number of Ancestors, as sufficient proof for their services could not be found. The pages on which these occur will be found among the Errata.

IN preparing the following list of ascendants of the members of the Massachusetts Society of Colonial Dames, no attempt has been made to give with absolute accuracy the dates which follow the name of each ascendant. They indicate the approximate time of his birth and death, or of his arrival in the colonies, and are intended merely to identify the person whose services are recorded.

The name of a colony following that of an ascendant signifies that his services render his descendants eligible in that colony; where no colony is given, it is to be understood that his services render them eligible in Massachusetts. Where an ascendant has been accepted as rendering eligible service, other services have often been added which are not of themselves sufficient to entitle him to a place among the accepted ascendants.

As the services speak for themselves, all titles except that of Reverend have been omitted.

Dates of service are inclusive, except where they have been taken from the printed records of the other societies.

Economy of space has made necessary the abbreviation of names and titles as "Court of Common Pleas" for Inferior Court of Common Pleas, "Assistant" for Governor's Assistant, "Councillor" for Member of Governor's Council. "Preacher of Election Sermon" signifies the minister annually appointed to preach the sermon before the General Court.

Some claims have been excluded from the following list because the authority for the service (especially that of commissioned officers) has not been given fully enough to enable the Eligibility Committee to verify the services. If, however, sufficient proof of the commission, or other service, is furnished, they will be included among the accepted ascendants. Family tradition or town histories, unsupported by other evidence, is not accepted as proof of service.

In case the name of any member has been accidentally omitted, under an ascendant from whom she has established a claim, if she will kindly send word to the Secretary, the omission will be rectified.
